Question: How will the tax reform part of the sales tax increase really work??

Answer: It depends . . . and will happen in several steps today.

Step one - Determining the school general fund levies under current law.

Each year the legislature sets the tax levies that will be used by all school districts for their general fund. Under rules set in place in 1995, the calculations used to set that tax levy have come from a formula that calls for school general funds to increase by ...read more
