What We're Up To...

Yankton Thrive would like to welcome Lauren Rezac to the team as our Business Services Director!

Growing up in Tabor and attending Yankton schools, Lauren is familiar with Yankton's business climate. Since Lauren's graduation from the College of Saint Benedict in St. Joseph, Minnesota, she has spent much of her time giving back through cultural experiences. While in college and as an international volunteer, she has spent time in Australia, Mexico and Nicaragua. Her curiosity about other cultures has created a strong foundation for her work at Thrive. As Business Services Director, she looks forward to creating a Young Professionals group and working with Thrive members to grow their businesses.

Lauren will start on May 28th.

Feel free to send her a welcome email at business@yanktonsd.com.

On Wednesday, we hosted a follow up meeting at the Elks Lodge to discuss next steps regarding the recent Child Care Landscape Analysis Report released April 24. Yankton Thrive CEO, Nancy Wenande led the discussion portion of the meeting & a representative for the Klein Visioneering Group shared additional insight for consideration.

Thank you to all those who attended & contributed & to Klein Visioneering Group.

Shoutout to Counterfeit Catering, who catered light appetizers for the event. An extra Special THANK YOU to Yankton area's childcare providers for all you do!

We recently had the pleasure of co-hosting a FAM tour for South Dakota Game, Fish and Parks summer interns and seasonal staff! It was an incredible opportunity to showcase all that Yankton has to offer and educate them so they can provide exceptional service to our estimated 2 million visitors this summer.

If you'd like to schedule a FAM tour for your interns, staff, or next family outing, don't hesitate to reach out to Thrive. We'd be thrilled to help you explore everything our wonderful city has in store!
